ABOUT URBAN PHOTO VILLAGE

Urban Photo Village is pleased to announce its participation in UrbanPhotoFest 2017, an international urban photography festival exploring contemporary visual practices focusing on urban life.

From 10–15 November Urban Photo Village will feature eleven exhibitions hosted in spaces within walking distance of each other around Deptford, reflecting this year's festival theme of Cartographies.

Urban Photo Village responds to notions of neighbourhood, and the area of Deptford reflects the varied nature of London's communities, transformations and social landscapes. The village—with its intensive program of workshops and seminars—creates an active space to encourage discussion, participation and creativity, involving local communities, artists, researchers and those interested in contemporary urban life.

This leaflet will guide you through the Urban Photo Village programme, providing an insight to the variety of exhibitions, events and activities across Deptford, New Cross and Greenwich.

For further information please visit www.urbanphotofest.org and follow the festival updates on Facebook and Twitter @UrbanPhotoFest
